HONORING COMMUNITY CHAMPION

TERRELL DAVIS

Terrell Davis is a Pro Football Hall of Famer, two-time Super Bowl champion, and former MVP of Super Bowl XXXII. As a Denver Broncos legend, Davis had an illustrious NFL career, including being named NFL MVP in 1998 and leading the league in rushing yards during the 1997 and 1998 seasons. He became one of only seven players in NFL history to rush for over 2,000 yards in a single season, a feat he accomplished in 1998.

Beyond his remarkable football career, Terrell Davis is deeply committed to giving back to the community. He has been involved in numerous philanthropic efforts, particularly in supporting youth initiatives. As a champion for healthy living, he co-founded DEFY, a company that promotes wellness through CBD-based products, which emphasizes recovery and holistic health for athletes and individuals alike. Davis is also a strong advocate for empowering underserved youth and actively participates in events and organizations aimed at making a positive impact on the lives of young people.

Terrell Davis will be joining Colorado Uplift's Breakfast of Champions to share insights from his journey on and off the field, including how he has worked to build stronger communities by supporting and uplifting youth.
